CONFERENCE CONTEXT
The 4th Industrial Revolution is underway. The technological changes are making possible new types of currencies, contracts and record keeping methods. Innovative approaches in conduct of the business and running of the economic systems are evolving. In this environment, the methods of development financing and development interventions are also changing. The challenges of sustainable economic development, swiftness, efficiency, ethics and good governance are becoming significantly more important.

CONFERENCE PURPOSE
The purpose of this ‘Call for Papers’ is to identify some interesting areas and questions that are becoming important for Islamic economics and finance and to list and emphasize the topics that would require further thinking for ‘Sustainability and Economic Development’ in the context of the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

The 12th International Conference on Islamic Economics and Finance will provide a platform for dialogue and discussions between policy-makers, academics, researchers, graduate students, and practitioners to address the problems of Sustainable Development in the 4th Industrial Revolution Era from the perspective of the Islamic economics and finance discipline.

In this context, theoretical and empirical research papers are invited in English, Arabic and Turkish languages for submission to the Conference in the following and related areas, subject to any conditions described in this announcement:
